6. Biosciences Career Awareness Fair

CALS Career Services will be having their first Biosciences Career Awareness Fair on Tuesday, April 28, from 2:00 - 5:00 in the Microbial Sciences Building.

Do you have a major in the bio-sciences field? Then mark your calendar for a chance to begin your job or internship search, network with employers, or just start researching companies and careers. Undergraduates and faculty are encouraged to attend.

Companies from the Research Park area will attend this event to let students know what is available in the biosciences area - not necessarily for hiring purposes but to answer questions on research and to brand themselves to the students.

7. Comedy Sportz

Celebrate the end of the semester with Comedy Sportz, an improv group out of Milwaukee that specializes in interactive, fun workshops for any age group. CALS Student Council and UW Housing will be hosting Comedy Sportz on Friday, May 1st, from 5-7PM in Upper Carson. It's lots of fun to watch, and even more fun to participate...at this event, you can do both!

From collaboration to conflict, Comedy Sportz brings laughs and learning about human nature. After the workshop, CALS Student Council will be announcing the winners of the CALS Silent Auction (you can bid that night) as well as recognizing the winner of CALS Week. Tell your student orgs and bring a friend. This night will be a great way to chill before finals.
